

MEDIATIONS ON THE HORIZON

April – June 2009

Attention Montreal artists of all origins: OBORO, in partnership with Diversité artistique Montréal (DAM), has devised a series of artist talks and workshops especially for you!

From April to June 2009, Mediations will provide a unique opportunity to discover a collection of fascinating artists, whose career paths and work with new media are sure to stimulate. Come and meet them; attend an artist talk, or register for a workshop in audio art or video art!

To know more about DAM, please visit www.diversiteartistique.org

© suschnee, 2008

Here's a glimpse into what we have planned

— WORKSHOPS —

↳ Introduction to audio art
An exciting foray into the creative process—the conceptual and technical practices of seasoned artists and musicologists.

Chantal Dumas – Writing with Sound
May 27 & 28, 2009, from 6 to 9 pm
June 16 & 17, 2009, from 6 to 9 pm

↳ Introduction to video
To demystify, create, manipulate, animate and disseminate video.

with Thierry Francis
June 2–3–9 & 10, 2009, from 6 to 9 pm

— ARTIST TALKS —

↳ Bryan Mulvihill
Interdisciplinary artist, calligrapher, traveller and founder of the World Tea Party, a pan-cultural, interactive, archetypal tea salon.

The Wandering Life and Times of a Tea Flâneur
Wednesday, April 22, 2009, at 6 pm

↳ Soo Yeon Cho & Jean-Sébastien Rousseau
Creative collaboration of an artist-choreographer-dancer with an artist-designer-programmer.

MeMo: Realtime Visual Effects and Dancing Bodies
Wednesday, May 13, 2009, at 5:30 pm

Workshop registration will begin in April.
Keep your eyes peeled for upcoming announcements!

