

New faces, pink cheeks and a pram

© Mamaki

A new technician

We are very happy to welcome Jonathan Plante to OBORO as our new technician and maintenance coordinator. With us since December, Jonathan Plante has worked as a technician for Vox, le Mois de la photo and Occurrence gallery, among others. In addition to his work as a technician, Jonathan is an artist, holding an interdisciplinary Bachelor of Fine Arts from Concordia University. He has presented his work in Quebec as well as in Europe, and has spent two years in Amsterdam as an artist in residence. Over the past few years, his practice has examined the materiality of the image—exploring through objects/images the notions of multiplicity, repetition, sequence and accumulation.

Additional staff for the Web

We are also very pleased to announce that Christian Maltais is joining the team. As a contract employee, Christian will be our assistant webmaster from January to July 2010.

Two coordinators and a baby carriage

Our program coordinator, Claudine Hubert, was visited by a stork over the holidays and is now coordinating her newborn's exciting program! As she swaddles away the winter's cold, we welcome Chantal T.Paris who valiantly takes the coordinator-torch. Chantal has worked at Occurrence gallery as interim gallery coordinator, as well as at Videograph as assistant director. Chantal is also an emerging author; she has published her work in esse art+opinions, ETC and Espace. She is currently pursuing her Masters in Art Studies at l'Université du Québec à Montréal, where she is researching collaborative writing in contemporary art-making.